Dear Abe Baum:

I was one of the Hammelburg POWs who made it out that night but who returned the next day after the German confrontation.
I later became an Army historian for John Waters, and I both arrived at Fort Monje in January 1963 as a consulting general, in a historical brief that Col Pop Goodie's last command was post command of Fort Monje.
You and I talked briefly at the time of the Baron project.
Your performance with the Hth Armored Division was heroic.
I'm proud to have talked with you if only by phone.

Warmly
Brooks Kleber
