

The following is a brief summary of what is included in the newspaper account of the raid by Task Force Baum on Mar 28, 1945.

This newspaper was published the day after the raid by the local newspaper in Hammelburg, Germany.

The newspaper is published by "The National Socialist Workers Party".

"This is an example of how the enemy turns everything around and tells lies about the progress of the war."

"The raid is between Aschaffenburg and Hammelburg in South Bavaria and includes the Army Training Ground".

"False Rumor announced over some captured radio station of enemy intent to demolish the German Troops."

"Americans lost 20 Sherman Tanks, 9 heavy tanks, 21 armored cars, 3 light tanks. 250 men captured and are prisoners".

"Examples of heroes- officer left hospital got bazooka and killed two tanks. German soldiers protect our homes and country from terrorist enemy."

No mention of POW Camp and release of prisoners.

Schaffenburg is totally cleaned out of the enemy.